Presenting the 1957 Syllabus

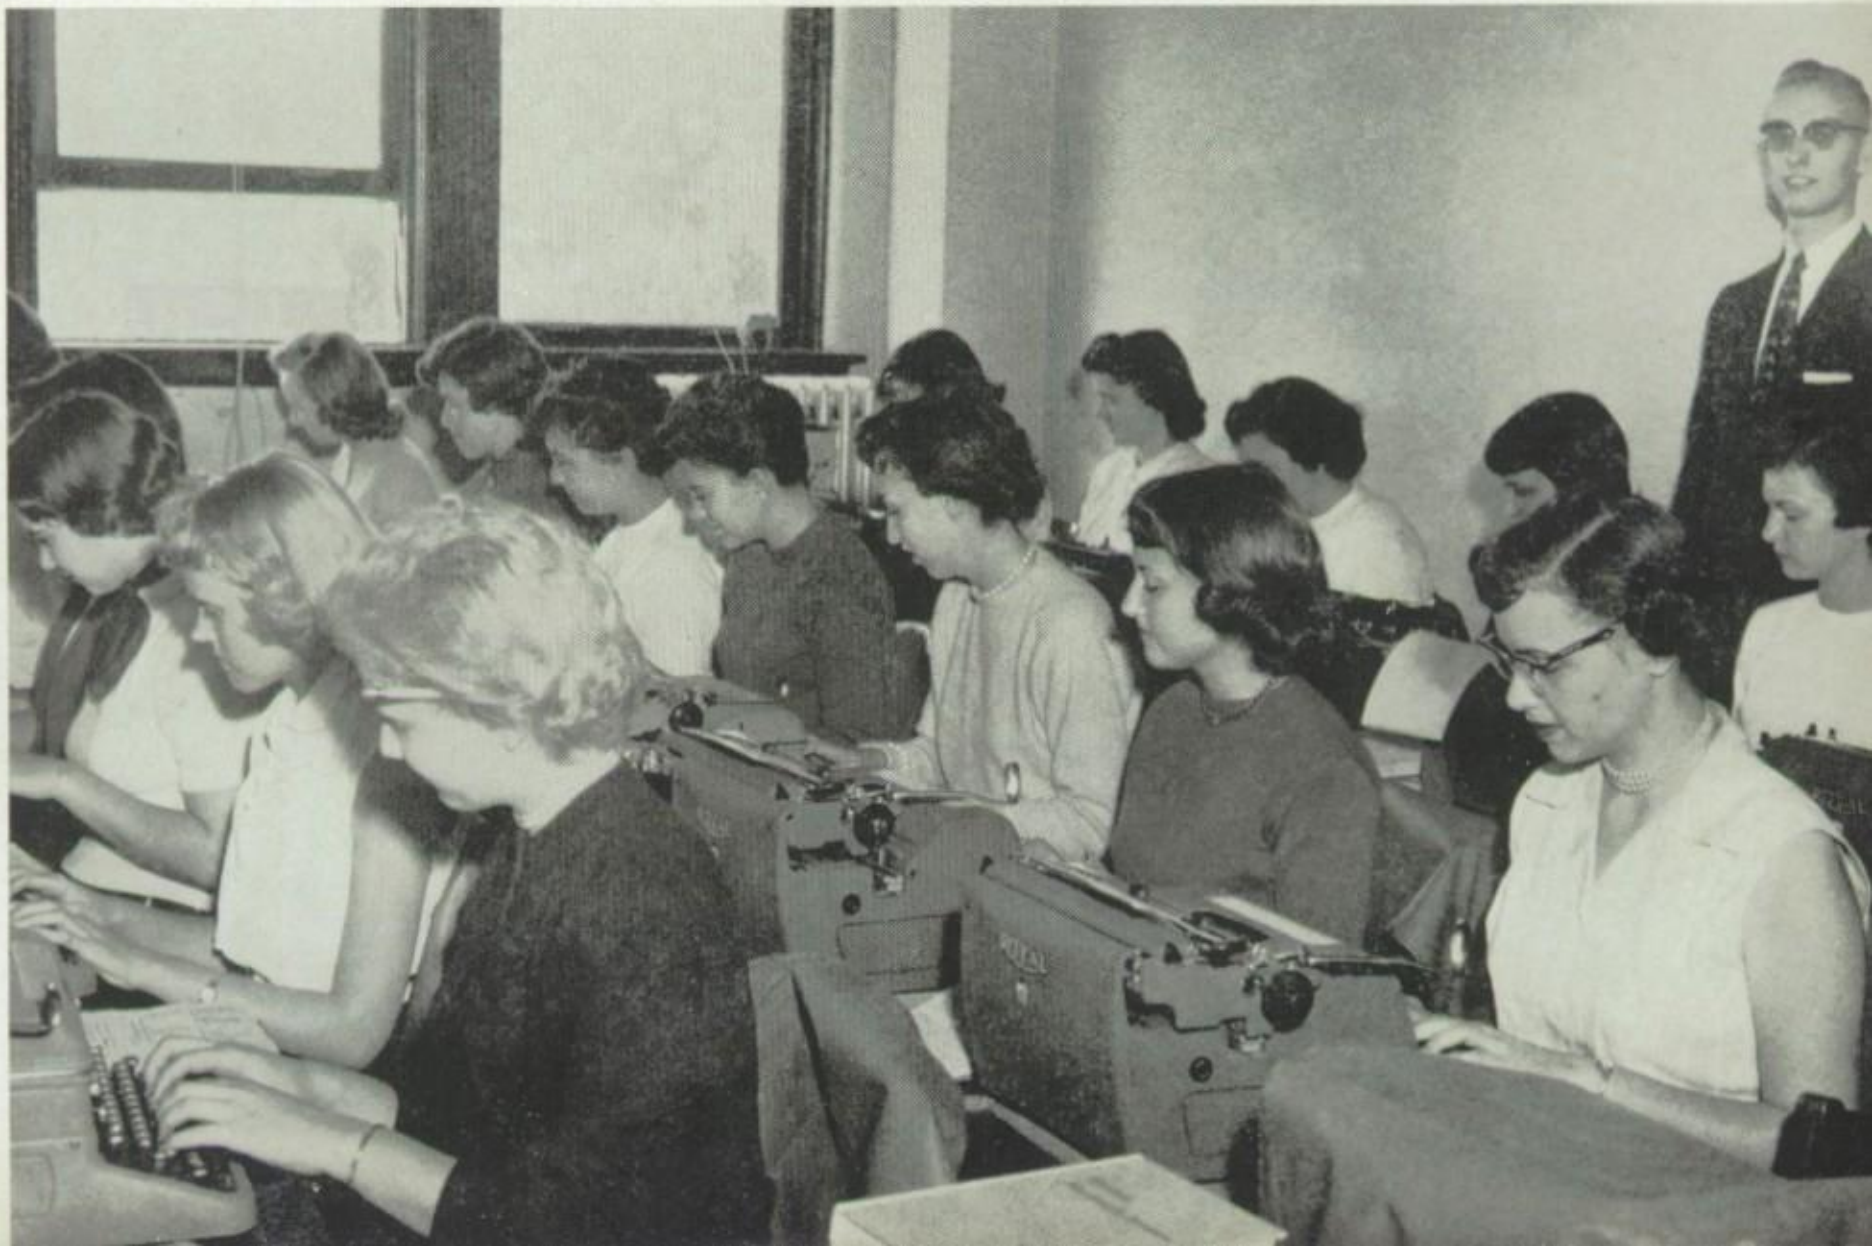

Throughout this Syllabus you will find recorded many memories which will remain dear to the graduates of 1957. Though it means leaving behind the best years of our lives, we realize the importance of going forward to further prepare ourselves to become good citizens of our community and our country.

This is the Physics class where the unbelievable is sometimes proved. Physics involves the laws and principles which surround us but which we never fully understand. At the end of such a course, a person is enriched in his knowledge of the why and wherefore of the laws of the universe.

Our commerce department offers seven subjects, which are: Typing 1 and 2, Shorthand, General Business, Bookkeeping, Office Practice and Business Law. The school paper is put out by the office practice class, which we all appreciate very much. The commerce department is under the direction of Mr. Merrill and Mr. Harry Inskeep.

Many students take advantage of the library which has been in existence for three years. Already we have 1690 books which are available for reference work and recreational reading.

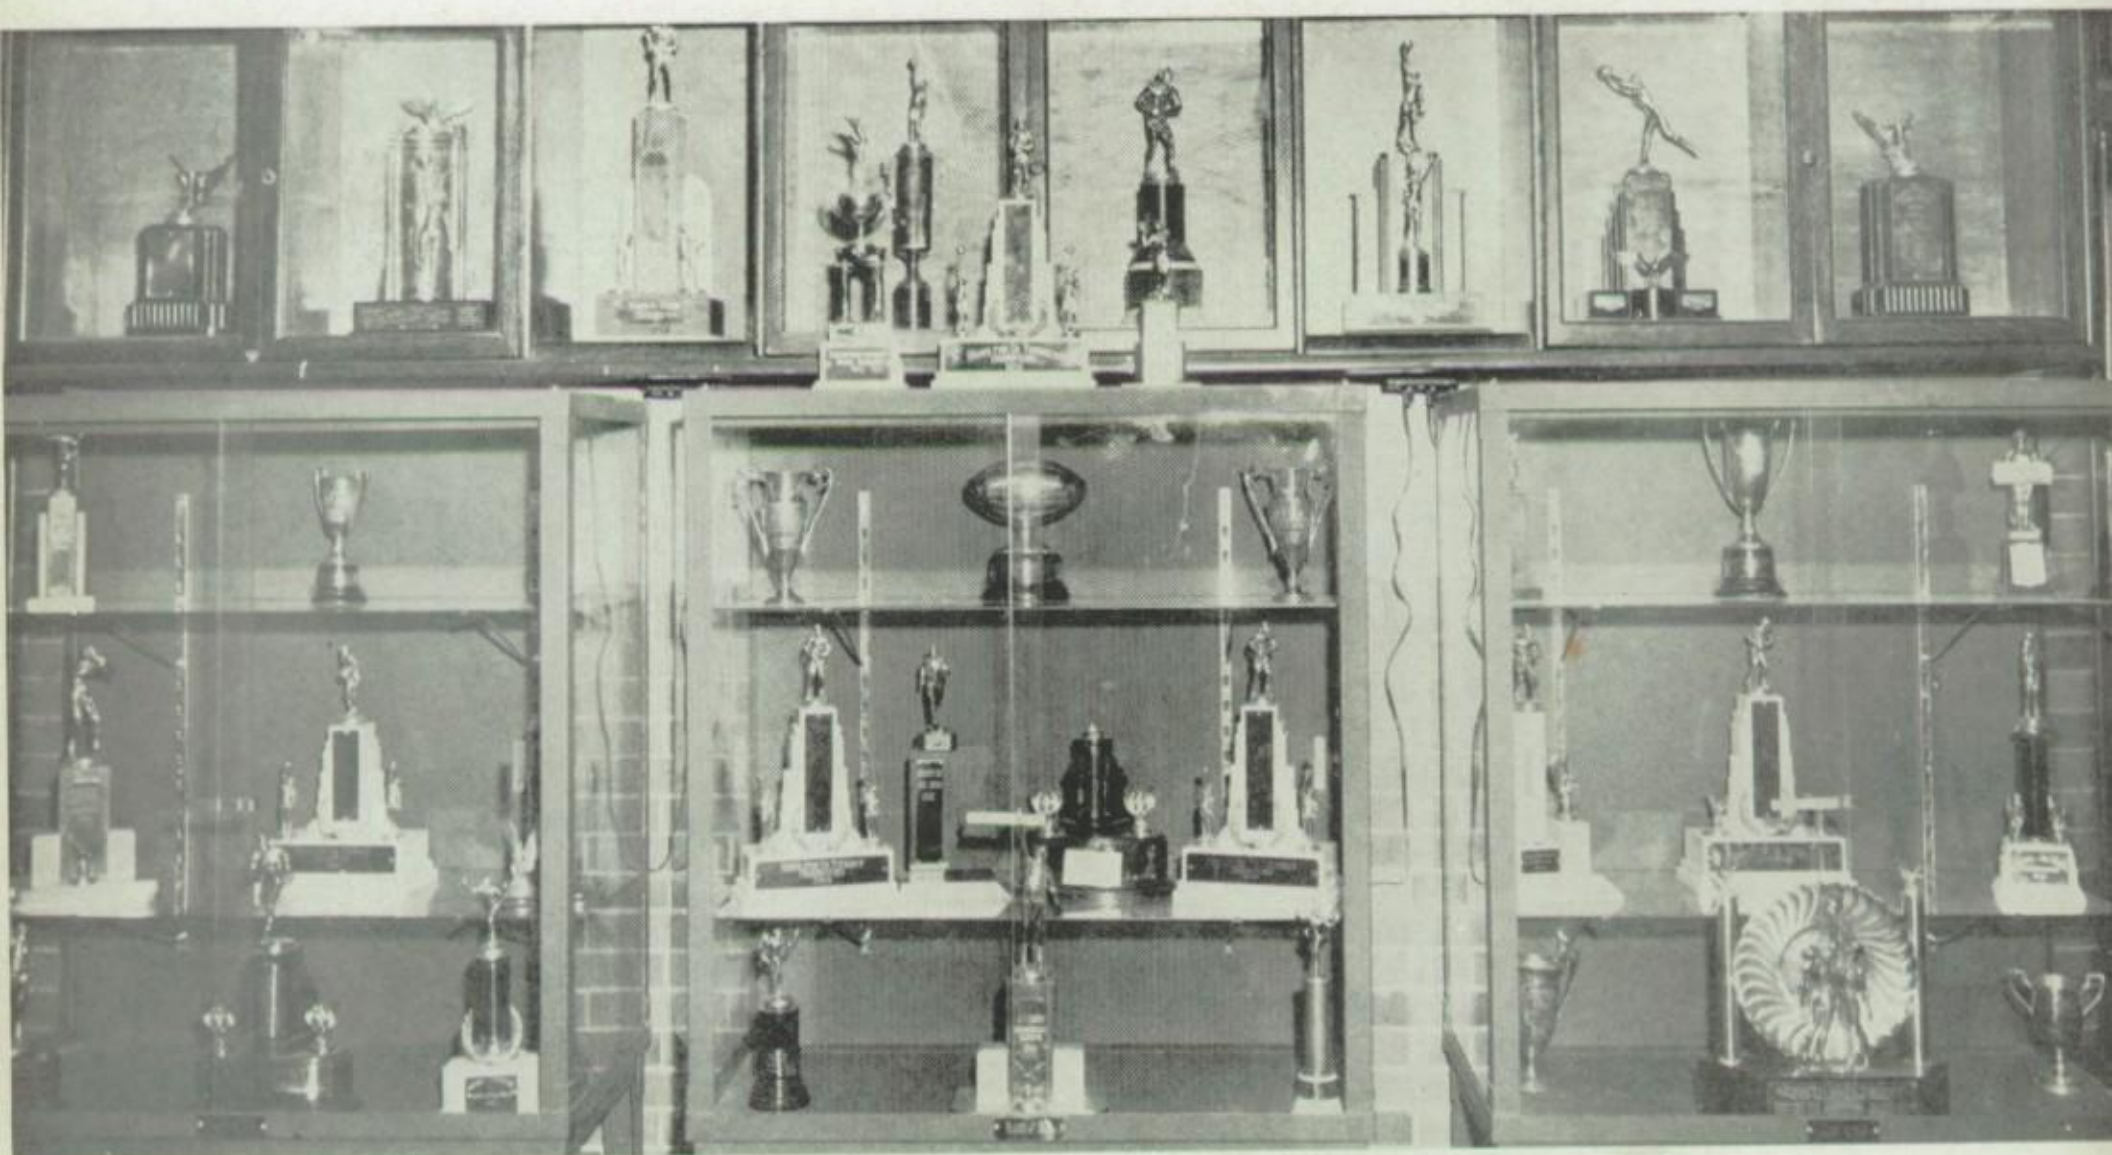

Under the capable supervision of Mrs. Linn, the Home Economics classes have filled our halls with many delightful and inviting aromas, as well as learning to become good homemakers.

This is a football Huh?!

Yea! Rah! Sheridan!

"Hoody Ever'body"

"All we want are the facts."

Candy today New York tomorrow.

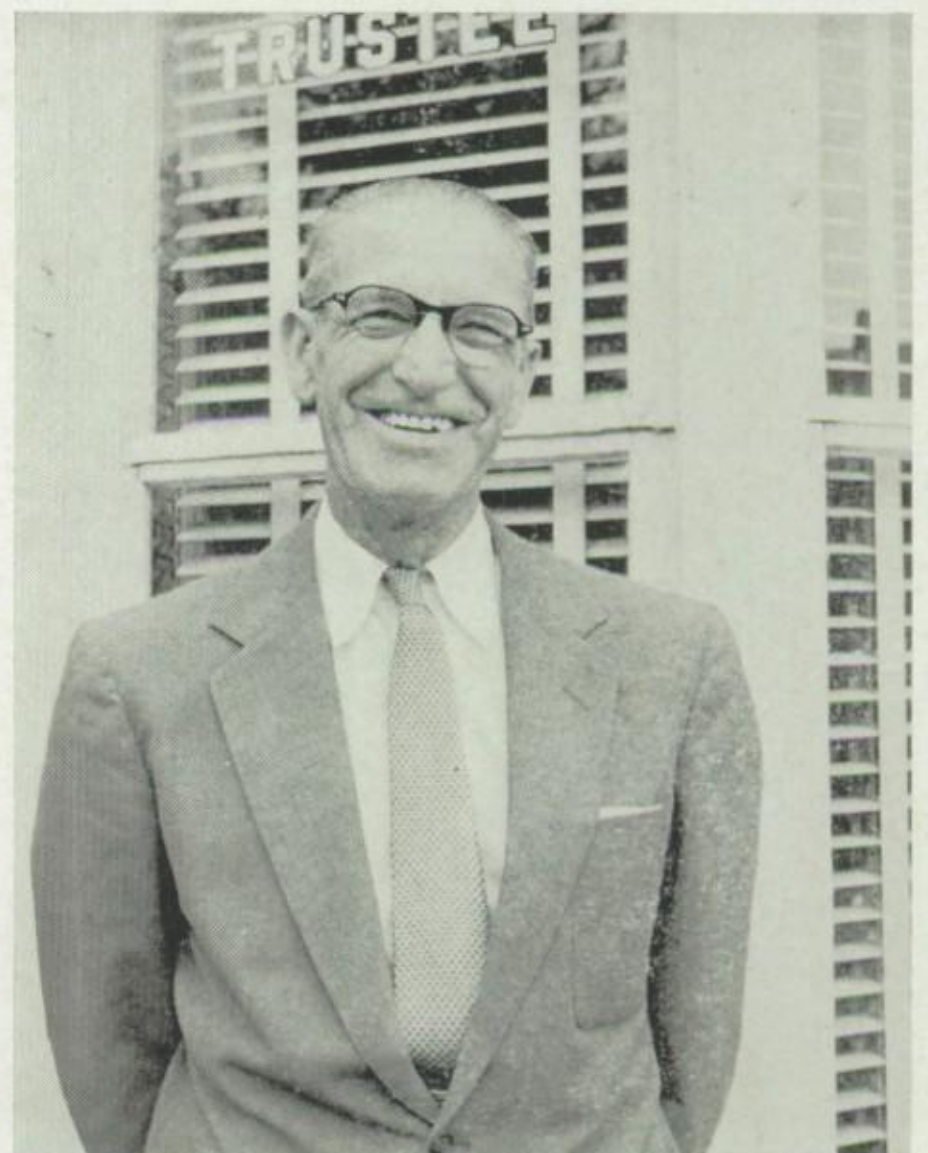

We are grateful to Mr. Hobbs for the interest he has taken in each of us. Soon after he came to Sheridan, he knew each of us by name. Through the years he has given personal guidance in helping students solve the many problems which confronted them.

As we leave Sheridan High School, we hope we can achieve the high ideals and goals he has helped us to set for ourselves.

Here we see a few of the many students enrolled in Sheridan High School, discussing their problems with Mr. Hobbs.

Mr. Mace, our trustee, is a well-known figure around the school. Wherever he is seen, whether it be at a ball game, or any other place, he greets everyone with a smile. He is very much concerned about each of the students. We are truly fortunate in having a trustee so interested in the youth of our school.

The Sheridan High School band, under the direction of Mr. Wayne VanSickle, is composed of Junior High and High School students who play wind or percussion instruments. They work together to form a band that everyone can be proud of.

During the week of August 19, the band attended Smith-Walbridge Camp near Syracuse, Indiana, for rehearsal of their show for the State Fair. The band marched at Zionsville in their Fall Festival. This band furnished entertainment for the guests who came to Kraft's Open House, and they marched at the Annual Halloween celebration. They performed at the Christmas program as well as all of the football and basketball games. They participated in the District Band and Orchestra Contest that was held at Sheridan. They also combined with the other bands of the county for the Hamilton County Spring Festival.

FRED (J) SPENCER, a sophomore guard, a little fellow, was a sparkplug on the "B" team this year. When needed on the "A" team he was always ready and willing.

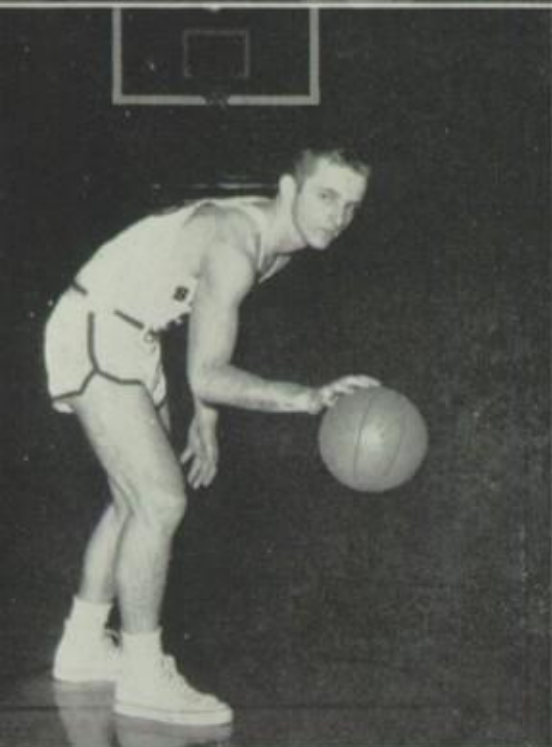

NEAL (Moosa) GODBY, a senior guard, showed his excellent ball handling in every ball game this year. What he lacked in height he made up for in real spirit.

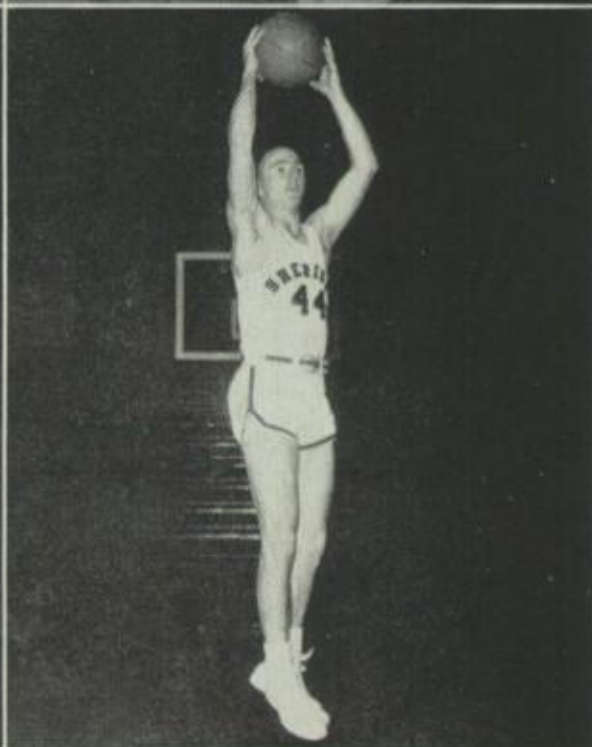

JERRY (Bunny) BAILEY, a senior forward, turned in a great season. His wonderful rebounding and terrific hook shot will be missed next season.

DAVID (Mitch) ELMORE, a senior with terrific rebounding and shooting, pulled the Hawks through many tight games. Dave's height was a great advantage to the team.

LARRY (Butch) BIDDLE, a sophomore, has a lot of size and great possibility of being a star performer in the seasons to come.

RONNIE (Doc) PICKETT, a senior guard, showed a great deal of accuracy on shooting from far out on the floor.

BILL DODD, a senior forward, was a great asset to the team with his tremendous shooting and drive at the basket.

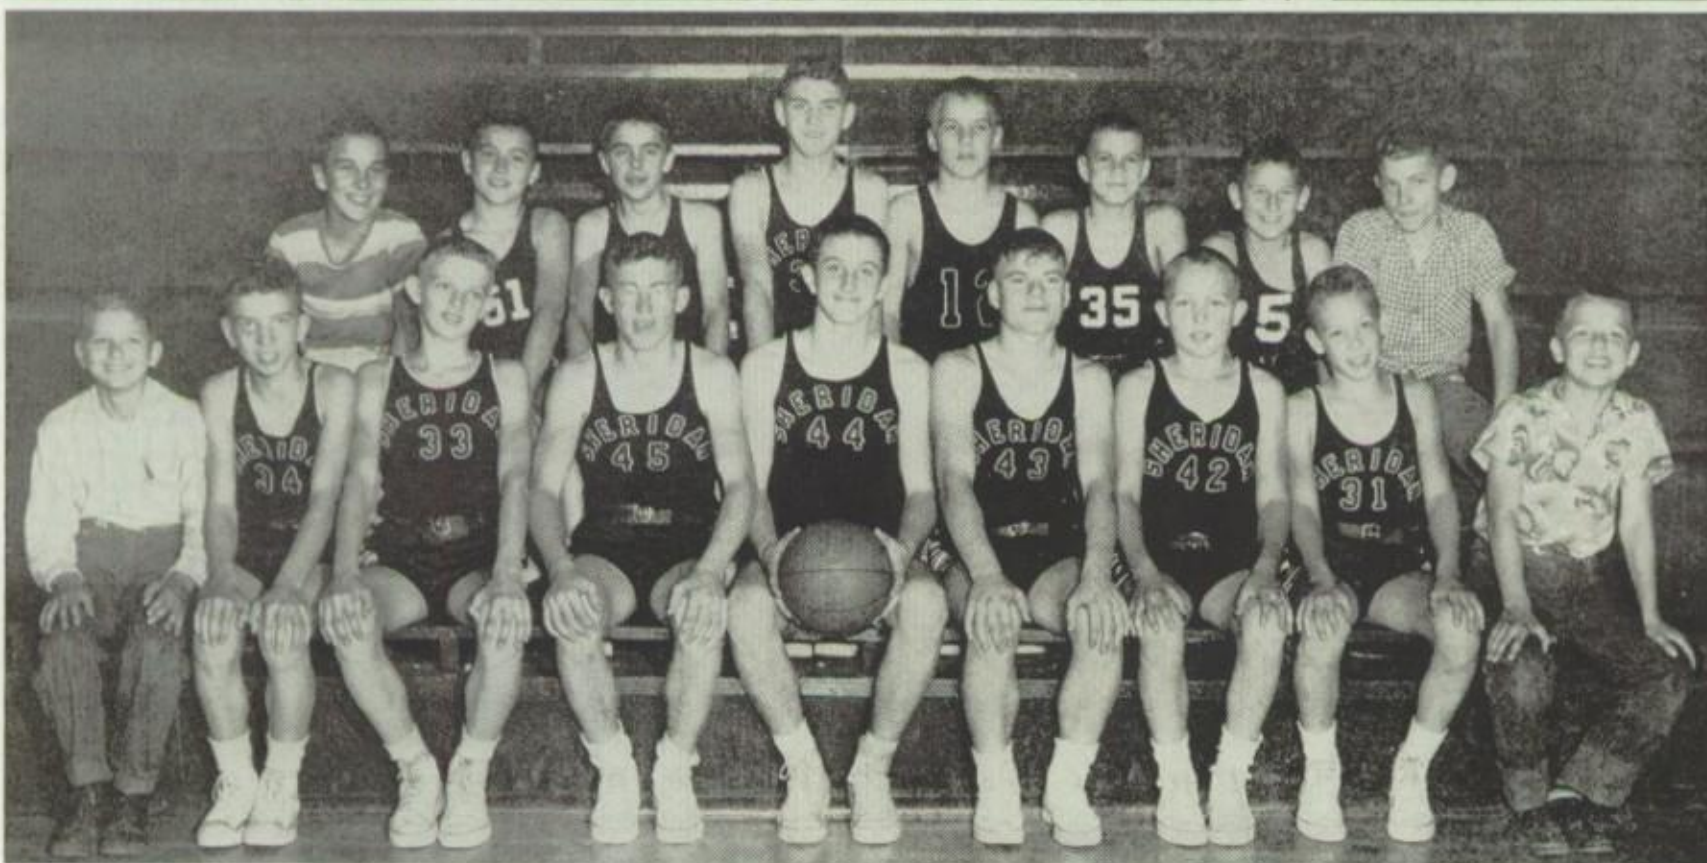

NEAL (Bo) CODY, a junior forward, displayed much ability in set shooting and also jump shooting. He will certainly be an asset to next season's team.

CALENDAR

"Hello! This is 'Blackie' your friendly Sheridan Blackhawk sitting atop the trophy case which contains the shiny trophies that other Sheridan Blackhawks have won. I am very proud of all the Blackhawks that attend Sheridan High School, and I think you would be too, if you knew what all they do. Let me tell you . . ."

"On August 31, the students came back to these hallowed halls of learning after their summer vacation. There was a football game that night, and the Blackhawks started the season on the right foot. They won over Carmel 14-13."

"September was the month for organization meetings of the various clubs. These include the Future Homemakers of America, the Future Farmers of America, Sunshine Society, Boy's Council, "S" Club, and the yell block. Crawfordsville won a victory on September 21 by a margin of 20-0 over the Sheridan team. The Blackhawks won over the Kirklin football players, 19-6, on September 28."

"On October 1 the F.H.A. initiated its new members into the organization with a candlelight ceremony, entertainment, and refreshments. "On November 7, the Senior Class presented their play, "The Boarding House Reach". I'm sure Shakespeare's actors could not have done better. The first basketball game of the season was with St. Mary's Anderson. The Blackhawks won over the opponents by 76-60. The F.H.A. and F.F.A. had a meeting on November 16. Lapel was also defeated by the Sheridan Blackhawks 53-41 on December 21."

"It is now the new year. Many of the students graduated after the first semester. It seems strange without them already. The Hawks won over Greencastle with a score of 63-51 on January 4th. The Hamilton County Basketball tourney took place at Sheridan on January 10th and 12th. Sheridan was the winner! A Boy's Council meeting was held on January 16th. He had been to a conference on the United Nations and was well qualified to answer all the questions the students asked. The Sectional tourneys started this month. Sheridan won their first game with Walnut Grove."

"The Sectionals ended this month. Sheridan lost their second game with Windfall. An evangelistic team came to school and presented convocations. March 8th is the date of the Hamilton County Music Festival. The county orchestra and the county chorus presented the program. Rev. John Parks of the Boxley Methodist Church was the speaker of convocations on March 18th. The Sheridan Chapter of the National Honor Society presented their initiation ceremony on March 13th. The orchestra and a special number provided the music for the program. The Boy's Council met on March 20."

"The Junior Class gave their play on April 3rd. The Sunshine Spring Convention was held on April 6th. The band, orchestra, and chorus contest was also on April 6th at Sheridan. PROPHECY

Senior Sponsors of 1957
Sheridan High School
Sheridan, Indiana

Dear Sponsors,

While walking through town one afternoon, I decided I would buy a car. Being tired of my "Caddy" I had planned on a smaller car such as a custom model comes. I turned in at the first establishment and who should I find but Ronnie Lambert, designer and builder of the Lambertmobile. After picking out a small coupe, I took it for a test run accompanied by Ivan Emry who is Ronnie's chief mechanic. Being pleased, I paid my bill and drove out only to be stopped by Noble Smith who was directing traffic at Elliott's corner. When approaching the city, I noticed a big, black, state trooper's car sitting at the corner. Behind the wheel was Dave Hammack reading a copy of MAD COMICS.

My first stop out of town was the Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis. Here I found Jane Rockey presiding as head nurse. Seeing that she had some time free, I invited her to join me in looking up some old classmates. She consented so we drove for the Circle. On the way, we noticed Elmer Bitner, Fred Gary, Dale Huckleberry, and Paul Skidmore all running their own White Castle stands. Pulling over on Washington Street, we noticed Rosemary Stahl and Rosemary Stone trying to convince people that the "King don't care". Approaching the Circle, we noticed Judy Hinshaw entering Block's with thirty modern dresses under her arm. She was followed by George and Jerry Bailey, who are her chief advisers.

Pulling into a parking lot, Jimmy Cline parked the car for us and Doris Bray punched out the ticket. We waved goodbye and proceeded to run into a small foreign sports car belonging to Phil Inskeep. He said he had had the car for a week and still hadn't found out how to get out of it. Walking through the bus station, we saw Judy Booth, who was driving for the Sheridan Bus Line. After crossing the street, we saw Waneta Gipson and Cecile Green selling gold matches to people who don't smoke but want to put up a good front. Just down the way is Norman Strawn attempting to educate some pigeons to the facts of municipal government. Seeing some ropes hanging from a building, we looked up and saw Barbara Staley and Francis Walden painting designs on the office building's windows.

Not finding anyone else, we drove back to the hospital. I dropped Jane off there and headed out of town going toward Ohio. As I approached the Ohio line, I noticed a sign bearing the advertisement "Butcher's Boarding House." I decided to stop and was greeted by Neil and James Harvey who have a thriving business. Since it was still early, I drove on into Ohio and stopped at a motel in Columbus. Much to my surprise, out walked the proprietors Patty Brocato and Diana Hadley. We exchanged greetings, and they informed me of the whereabouts of a few more classmates. It seems that Phyllis Allen, Deanna Eidson, and Deanna Mace are learning how to put the crunch in Peter Pan. Marilyn Biddle, Janet Bishop, and Fern Bradley are the ones who are staying up all night to make "Taystee Bread."

After spending an enjoyable night, I wheeled into Pennsylvania and found Joe Greer, Norman Paddock, and Jon Overdorf polishing the Liberty Bell. Also, I saw James McVey and Bernie Watts trying unsuccessfully to start a fight in the city of "brotherly love."

New York loomed into view after a day of hard driving. I decided to take in some night life and so headed for the "great White Way." Here I found Betty Mathews working as a dance choreographer at the "Swank" Club. Bidding her goodbye, I ran into Ronnie Heck and Sara Linn who had been painting the town all colors.

Right in the middle of the confusion I saw a sign blinking "Don't Pay Taxes, Come to Max's." I went in and was confronted by Neal Godby and Dave Elmore who frisked me. After explaining who I was and that I had no intention of raiding them, I was ushered in to see Max. I was checked out the back door by Carolyn Burtron, who offered to take my money. I ran out and jumped into a taxi only to find that it was driven by Ronnie Pickett. He told me that Lois Ross had made cover girl for Vogue magazine, Charles Price was publishing the New York Daily News, and that Irene Grinstead was a top executive at the CBS-TV studio in New York.

Letting me out at Macy's, Ronnie bade me goodbye and peeled out for the other side of town. Going into the store, I saw Eddie Davis demonstrating mattresses on the main floor. I discovered that Marzella Graham was head of the sales department too.

Being tired, I went to "Dodd's Den" where Bill Dodd said he would put me up for the night. I was served my supper by Betty Jo Mendenhall who was his chief cook and bottle washer. Then I went to bed to dream up some way to get home as I had now seen all my classmates.

Yours truly,
Bob Seymour

BOB DAY

I sincerely wish to express my appreciation to the following people: Mr. Hobbs for his continuous and cheerful cooperation, Mrs. Elma Griffith for her faithful counseling with the staff, the staff's assistance, and each of the faculty.

I also wish to thank the merchants in our community, the Indianapolis Engraving Company, Milliner Printing Company, S. K. Smith Company, Porter's National Studio, and the Newspaper "Boys of America."

To these go my deepest respect and gratitude.
